WARNING:

Under Louisiana law, an equine activity sponsor or equine professional is not liable for an injury to or the death of a participant in equine activities resulting from the inherent risks of equine activities, pursuant to R.S. 9:2795.3.

By my signature below, I hereby acknowledge that I understand the risks involved in riding horses and/or cow work and voluntarily assume those risks. I agree that I will not hold LASH nor any of the directors, officers, employees, volunteers, or participants liable for any injury or property damage rising out of or caused by this horse clinic/competition held. I have read this release and understand its terms. ALSO—I give my permission to use my pictures on the Louisiana Stock Horse Association webpage, in articles and advertising.

NOTE: Riders should always be aware when going down the fence or chasing the cow for any reason—not to run cattle into the fence. Riders should pull up to avoid hurting cattle that might run into the fence. We are responsible for the welfare of the cattle and if we have to replace one, it hurts the economic success of the show and can affect the overall year end awards.
